New Dress Goods.

Great in Quantity, Great in Quality, but Not Great in Price.

Pride is a commendable thing in its proper place. We have a feeling of satisfaction with the assortment of Dress Goods we've gathered together this spring.

Last year's display was a fine one—this year's is better. Our pride is not the kind that stands still—satisfied with what has been achieved, but we're always pressing forward to a mark further beyond.

Our Dress Goods showing for the spring and summer of 1907 has no equal in this section of the country.

or rather have a marked similarity of facial makeup.

Mr. Robbins, while making his explanation, was looking hopefully around for one kindly face. The pickaninny grinned and the crowd only smiled sympathetically.

But finally the boys were separated, and those who said they were not there were allowed to go. The officers could swear to none of them. Nineteen of them were made to pay costs. In each case the costs amounted to $2.50, which nettled the Police Commissioners just $53.20. All of the boys were warned not to congregate on the corners any more.

INTOXICATED, BUT HOW?

Aged Negro Attributes Drunkenness to Food.

Kind white people who knew Henry Jones gave him so much to eat that he became intoxicated, and had to be locked up at the Second Station House. Henry, with a satchel of the old-time make in one hand, and a black hat crushed in the other, came from the pen yesterday morning and faced the One John.

"What about it, Henry?" inquired the man with the silvery locks.

"Twere dis way, Jedge," started off Henry. "Uh were movin' de stable for Mister James Smith, whar lies up dar, whar on de railroad station whar de call de Elbow. Yes, sir, uh were de heppin' 'em move de stable, you know, boss. White folks always is good to me. Old Marse, he taken made me er—"

"What's all this got to do with your being drunk?" demanded the One John, in the middle of Henry's warblings.

"Boss, de des fed me en fed me till uh des lay down."

"Didn't you drink anything?"

"Naw, sir, uh desn't drink. But dem white folks, at dat stable whar we move de stable."

"Get out of here! Show him the way to the door! Never heard of a man getting drunk off something to eat before!"

Said the One John, and he closed the big book, in which was written the names of the day. Back in the sanctity of his private office he cussed about sixteen city officials, and then said he felt like taking a walk in the fresh air.

BACK TO CAROLINA.

Negro Charged With Embezzling Church Funds There.

John Henry Sneed, a negro, wanted in James County, N. C., for alleged embezzlement of funds of a church, of which he was the treasurer, told Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning that he would return to North Carolina without requisition papers. His case was continued until Saturday, when an officer from Carolina will be here for him.

Detective-Sergeant Forrest Bailey received information from Henderson, N. C., that the negro was wanted, and in half an hour's time had the culprit in a cell at the First Station House. Sneed made no defense yesterday when called in Police Court.

Afterwards he said that he was the treasurer of the church, having been elected while he was absent. He declared that he had gotten up two entertainments and collected for the church about $20, all of which had been drawn out by the members. As soon as he could see his books he said he could clear himself of the charge.

TRENT TO FACE A JURY.

Negro Who Has Been Stealing Brasses Held for Court.

After all the evidence of some eight or ten witnesses for the Commonwealth had been listened to by Justice Crutchfield in Police Court yesterday morning, it was clear that one John Trent, a negro, was booked for the Penitentiary for a good long stay.

On three counts he was sent to the grand jury. One warrant charges him with stealing brasses and couplings and pieces of fire hose from the Richmond Locomotive Works. The testimony was that the negro had broken all of the fire-extinguishers and had disposed of the brass. In all he stole more than a hundred dollars' worth from the works. He also broke into an out-house.

The third charge was that of stealing iron and brass from the Trocadero Works, and on this, too, he was sent to the grand jury. Mr. Thomas Ryan represented the negro.

CATCH SADDLE THIEF.

Negro Held on Larceny Charge Denies It.

After sending the police for more than two months, Robert Robbins, negro, wanted on a warrant charging him with the theft of a saddle valued at $15 from Mr. John P. Huntley, was arrested last night by Officer C. M. Johnson and locked up at the First Station House.

The negro denies stealing the saddle and attempts to place the theft at the door of another negro. He previously notified the police, saw and recognized his saddle. He is held on a $500 bond for trial.

The negro who had the saddle was made to explain. It developed that he had bought it.

WARM CAMPAIGN IN HENRICO CO.

County Officers and Legislators to Be Nominated by a Primary.

SOME CONTESTS FOR OFFICES

Treasurership Is One Prize; Office of Sheriff Is Another.

The date has not been fixed for holding the Democratic primary in Henrico county, but the general opinion among the courthouse officials is that the primary will be called for as early a date as possible. The election is fixed after May 4th, the last date on which poll-taxes can be paid, and it will take only a few weeks to make up the necessary lists. On the result of the Democratic primary hangs the issue also of the general election, as the county is overwhelmingly Democratic, although independent candidates have sometimes made a good showing.

Although the interest centers around the treasurership fight, that office having been in the public eye for some time past, and being one of the most lucrative positions in the gift of the voters, still candidates for other positions are doing a good deal of quiet handshaking and looking about.

Judge T. Ashby Wickham, State Senator, and Mr. C. W. Throckmorton, of the House of Delegates, will stand for election, and so far have no announced opposition, both gentlemen having made acceptable representations of the county.

The sheriff's office will bring out a contest. The present sheriff, Mr. Simon Solomon, is well and favorably known to a large number of the residents of the county. His opponent in the race will be Mr. L. H. Kemp, who has been a commissioner of revenue for the past sixteen years. Mr. Kemp is a man of high standing, and has the reputation of making a vigorous campaign.

Among the other positions to be filled by popular vote are the four overseers of the poor, one for each district of the county.

The position in Brookland District was recently vacated by death. Mr. P. M. Hinton, represents Fairlee District, Mr. W. T. Warriner Varina District, and Mr. Victor Litchfield Tuckahoe District.

All of the members of the Board of Supervisors will stand for re-election. Chairman Saunders is the only one who has any announced opposition as yet, Mr. Victor Floyd having announced his candidacy for the position.

Brookland District, which Mr. Saunders represents, is the largest district of the county, and pays as much taxes as the other three districts. Mr. Saunders is one of the best known men in the county, and is a leader in matters of legislation coming before the Board of Supervisors. It is no wonder, therefore, that he has so many opponents. His opponent will be likely to defeat him.

Another important matter to be settled at the primary will be the selection of the County Democratic Committee, and it is rumored that there will be several changes, although these cannot be forecast as yet.

Must Pay Poll Taxes.

Treasurer W. B. Prayser, of Henrico county, advises all patrons of the office to settle for their taxes as soon as possible in order to avoid the rush later on. Poll taxes must be paid before May 6th in order to vote in the coming primary, and in the November general election.

On property taxes a penalty is added if not paid before June 15th, and on October 1st, those who are still delinquent are reported to the county clerk.

Messrs. H. B. Boudar & Son have been retained by the Board of Supervisors to examine the affairs of the treasurer's office, bringing their examination of last October under to date.

It is probable that the work will be done in the next few days.

Spontaneous Combustion.

Fire that is supposed to have resulted from spontaneous combustion, was discovered in a closet of the No. 1300 Volstead Street Tuesday night about 8:30 o'clock. Truck Company No. 2 responded to the alarm and the cause was soon extinguished. No damage to the residence was very slight.

Adventist Service.

Pastor Farman, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, will hold a service for the congregation on "The Sanctuary." The church is on Thirty-third Street.

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which is taken into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes a treatise and on each bottle of Dr. Pierce's Food for Weak and Worn-Out People, this book is placed. It is a book that every man, woman and child should have. It is a book that every man, woman and child should have. It is a book that every man, woman and child should have.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, backache, dragging down pain or distressing lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful menstruation, giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The Favorite Prescription is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating remedy for nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon and connected with the diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend it for the several ingredients of which it is composed. It is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card to the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Don't Starve Your Hair

What do you think your doctor would say about feeding your hair with Ayer's Hair Vigor, the new kind? He knows that it feeds, nourishes, strengthens. The hair stops falling out, grows more rapidly, and all dandruff disappears. We publish the formulae of all our preparations. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

CORNERSTONE TO BE LAID TO-DAY

Davis Monument Masonic Emblems Removed from Monroe Park to Monument.

TO BE RE-LAID THIS MORNING

School-Children Will Haul Davis Bronzes from Station to Monument Site.

The corner-stone of the Davis Monument will be placed in position this morning at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of the members of the Davis Monument committee and others. This corner-stone, which was originally laid with imposing Masonic ceremonies and after a great military and Confederate parade in the center of Monroe Park, has rested for the past ten years under the great pyramid of rock in the fountain. Yesterday it was exhumed, and this morning will be placed in its final position just under the pedestal of the Davis figure at the corner-stone of the monument.

Richmond people will remember the imposing ceremony with which this corner-stone was laid in Monroe Park at the time of the last great Confederate assembly in the city. It was planned at that time to place the monument in Monroe Park. Col. James P. Fitzgerald, of Farmville, the grand master of the Ancient, Free and Accepted Masters, in Virginia, officiated at the ceremonies, which were marked by one of the most extensive parades Richmond has seen in a generation.

For the past ten years the corner-stone has lain hidden away in the recesses of the fountain, and when it was determined not to erect the monument in Monroe Square, the city fathers decided to place it in its present position.

There will be no formal exercises in connection with the placing of the stone this morning, but a number of members of the Davis Monument Association, the architects, Artist Valentine, and many prominent Confederates will gather at the monument at 8:30 A. M. to see the stone placed in its permanent position.

Stuart Equestrian Statue.

The employees of the Graham Company are engaged in setting in place the Stuart equestrian statue. The figure was shipped to Richmond in sections, each log as well as the tail of the horse being in separate boxes. The employees of the casting company are rapidly assembling the parts, and will rapidly give evidence of being a notable one, every detail bearing the closest inspection. The rider shows a wonderful degree of animation, and is confidently believed that when the monument is finally unveiled it will meet the highest expectations as an equestrian figure of exceptional merit.

It was erroneously stated in an afternoon paper yesterday that the plan to have the school-children of the city haul the Davis figure from the station to their resting-place at the head of Monument Avenue had been abandoned. On the contrary, the plans for this beautiful and appropriate exercise are nearly completed and it only remains to fix the date, which will certainly be within the next week. The bronze figures are at the Atlantic Coast Line freight depot, on Eighth Street, and will be hauled in separate wagons, drawn by long ropes in the hands of thousands of the school children of Richmond to the head of Monument Avenue.

Announcement will be made in the next day or two of the date and route to be taken by this parade, which will be an informal character. The committee would like to have one or more drum corps or other musical organizations volunteer their services for this occasion, as it is not intended to make it an occasion attaching any special interest in the parade, or in the carrying of the statue.

Freeman, of Lee Camp, is in charge of the arrangements of the parade.

Pitcher Derby Better.

Pitcher Derby, who has been suffering with a bad cold and a slight attack of the grip for the last few days, was able to get up yesterday, though he did not venture out to the park. His physician thinks he will be in condition by to-morrow afternoon, and his services be needed.

By making the ground, and he will make a good fight for his position on the team.

UNION CAMPAIGN FOR FAIRMOUNT

Three Denominations to Unite in One Great Evangelistic Service.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN SUNDAY

Minister to Preach Sermon to Mutes—Address on Indian Missions.

Three churches of different denominations in Fairmount are uniting in holding revival services during next week, instead of conducting separate services, as heretofore. It is believed that the combination will have a good moral effect on the community, and the services will no doubt attract large audiences. The churches in the movement are the Fairmount Avenue Methodist, the Fairmount Christian and the Fairmount Baptist.

A general committee has been selected from all three congregations to take charge of the series, which opens on Sunday night in the Baptist Church. This church has been selected for the series because of its large seating capacity and its convenient arrangement of the Sunday school room, which opens into the main auditorium.

The building is being especially arranged for the services by the building of a large choir platform, and by installing extra lights and rearranging the seats to better advantage.

The Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, will begin preaching on Sunday night, and continue the services each night for a week. He will be followed by the Rev. E. K. Odell, of Highland Park, who will conduct the services one week on behalf of the Methodists, and then the Rev. C. O. Woodward, of Manchester, will represent the Christian churches for the last week of the series.

Mr. H. Lonnie Mitchell will have charge of the music, and is arranging for a chorus of fifty voices, and congregational singing will be made a feature of the meeting.

The Rev. Mr. Earle, of the Baptist Church; Rev. Mr. Paylor, of the Methodist Church; and Rev. Mr. Sublett, of the Christian Church, compose an executive committee in special charge of the meetings.

Speak on Indian Mission.

The Rev. D. Campbell Mayer, formerly a missionary among the Indians of Idaho, will speak of the missionary work among the Indians of this country, and will exhibit some rare curios in St. Mark's Episcopal Church, corner of First and Clay Streets, on Friday night of this week. Rev. Mr. Darst, pastor of the church, will introduce the speaker. The public is invited.

Sermon to the Silent.

Rev. J. W. Michaels, evangelist to the deaf of the South, under the auspices of the Southern Baptist Convention, will hold special services for the deaf mutes of the city at the Grove Avenue Baptist Church on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, and on Sunday afternoon. The subject for the Friday evening service, which will be at 8 o'clock, is "In His Steps." All of the deaf mutes of the city are invited to attend these services.

BAPTIST EDUCATION.

Some Noteworthy Speakers Will Address the Conference.

One of the subsidiary gatherings in connection with the Southern Baptist Convention, which meets in Richmond on the evening of May 15th, will be the Southern Baptist Education Conference, which meets here on the evening of May 15th, and holds morning and afternoon sessions on the 16th. Prof. W. H. Harrison, of Russellville, Ky., is the president of this gathering. President James M. Brown, University, and Dr. S. C. Mitchell, of Richmond College, are among the speakers already arranged for. The gathering will be held in the Grace Street Baptist Church, corner of Fourth and Grace, and nearly all of those attending the conference will remain to the sessions of the convention.

FINE VIEWS OF JAPAN.

Stereopticon Show of Photographs of Mikado's Kingdom.

A stereopticon lecture will be given at the Church of the Covenant on April 15th by Mr. Cameron Johnson, who was formerly a missionary in Japan. While abroad Mr. Johnson collected a number of interesting photographs, which have been mounted on stereopticon slides by some of the best artists in this country, the effect of his pictures being remarkable.

The object of the entertainment is to raise funds for the outfit of Miss Atkinson, who expects to go as a missionary teacher to China shortly. A small admission will be charged.

Honor for Dr. Clark.

The Rev. William Meade Clark, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, of this city, has been invited to preach the annual commencement sermon before the Young Men's Christian Association at Blacksburg, during the same week.
